

COMMUNICATIONS DEPARTMENT

SCDOR to Host Sales and Use Tax Seminar for the Construction Industry April 22

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 4, 2015

The South Carolina Department of Revenue (SCDOR) will host a sales and use tax seminar for the construction industry on April 22, 2015. The seminar will focus on sales, use and local taxes; exemption and exclusions for the construction industry; employee vs. independent contractor; and software and maintenance matters. Participants will also have the opportunity to participate in meaningful discussions and ask relevant questions of the SCDOR staff serving as instructors.

When: April 22, 2015, 10 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Where: Columbia Conference Center, 169 Laurelhurst Avenue, Columbia, S.C. 29210

Cost: $45 which includes all materials and lunch

Who: Business managers, chief financial officers, accounts payable personnel, accounting staff, tax professionals, and others who work with sales and use taxes in construction or related industries will benefit from this seminar and are encouraged to attend.

For additional details and more information about other education opportunities, please contact the SCDOR's Taxpayer Education Coordinator at 803-898-5593 or visit our website at dor.sc.gov.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

SCDOR Public Affairs Office
(803) 898-5773

-###-